“WHY RAISE MONEY FOR PIANOS?”

In these challenging times,
that’s a valid question.

We when we see a Steinway, we don’t see “just a piano”. We envision the communities created by each instrument.

We see the community of Steinway craftspeople, whose hands fashion an outstanding instrument that will last 100 years.

We see the hundreds of hands that will rehearse countless hours in TCNJ’s practice rooms.

We see the thousands of graduates who will take their TCNJ training back to their communities and contribute to the artistic, economic, and social vibrancy of their schools and neighborhoods.

We see the generations of music students who will be taught by TCNJ alumni.

We see talent nurtured and lives touched.

We believe that’s a vision worth pursuing.

We invite you to join us.
